Tonight Collins Hill travels to Mountain View HS for their third of four Region 6 games before the Christmas break. This will be the third game in five days for both teams as both the Eagles and the host Bears played Saturday in the "Christmas in Commerce" event at East Jackson HS. The Bears beat Chattahoochee 65-40 earlier that day and were led by junior sharp shooter Spencer Rogers with 23 points.

Last Saturday night the Eagles played Heritage HS, the #5 ranked team in the State in Class 6A and came away with a 74-62 win. Up by 14 at the half, the Patriots cut the lead to 3 midway through the 4th quarter, but Collins Hill got some timely defensive stops and made FT's late to seal the victory. Five players scored in double figures for Collins Hill with Kenny Staniel and Chris Parks pulling down 5 rebounds a piece, Max Clark added 4 assists and Justin Lee had 6 deflections.

- ◆ Next Up: Friday night the Eagles return back home to play Duluth HS.
- ◆ Collins Hill moved up a spot and are ranked #6 in the State in Class 7A in this weeks state poll by Kyle Sandy in the Sandy's Spiel Poll.
